ROBERT COLWELL

OF

PROVIDENCE

AND HIS DESCENDANTS

Compiled by

Ruth Story Devereux Eddy

March 1936

PREFACE

During the ten years spent in the search for material for "The Eddy Family in America," which was published in 1930, I made a note of every reference to the Colwell Family that I found and added this material to that which I had already at hand as an inheritance from my father, Robert Williams Devereux (1829-1900), whose interest in his own ancestry and that of his wife, Melissa Colburn Colwell, was noteworthy.

Since 1930 I have made an exhaustive study of the records in Rhode Island, with the result that I now have a fairly complete record of those branches of the Colwell Family which have remained in Rhode Island. Greatly to my surprise I found that of the four grandsons of the first Robert Colwell of Providence, two married great-granddaughters of Roger Williams, and that the son of a third grandson of Robert Colwell married a descendant of Roger Williams. 1622316

As 1936 is the Tercentenary year for Providence and because everything pertaining to Roger Williams is of special interest at this time, it seemed to me that although the records of those branches of the Colwell family which left Rhode Island are not complete, the time had come to arrange and set in order the material on hand, and offer as a contribution to this Tercentenary celebration this record of the descendants of Robert Colwell of Providence, more than half of whom are descendants of Roger Williams.

In my childhood I had heard of a "Colwell Chart", but where it was I never knew and never found anyone else who had ever heard of it, so for a history of the first six generations it became necessary to study the Rhode Island Colonial Records, the Town Council records of Providence and of the other towns in the state, as well as the Vital Statistics, Deeds, and Wills, filed in those towns, and check these with the Census of 1790 and with the two others taken in Rhode Island in 1774 and 1777 for military purposes. After all this work on the early history was complete, the Colwell Chart was found by a friend, Mr. Sessions Adams of Central Village, Conn. It was framed and hanging on the walls of the home of Mr. Winfield Angell Colwell of Danielson, Conn. This chart was made by William Colwell (1790-1817) probably about 1815. It gives five generations of one branch from the first Robert Colwell of Providence, through his grandson John Colwell.

The readers of genealogies are of two groups. The members of one group read because they want to know where their ancestors lived, what occupations they followed, what part they took in the life of the town and state and, if possible, to get some idea of each one of those in their own line of descent. The other group reads for the purpose of finding an ancestor who came over in the "Mayflower", or who was a Colonial Governor, or a soldier in the Revolutionary War. These are the ones who demand proof for every step in the line of descent and every possible date.

In the pages that follow an attempt has been made to furnish material for both groups. Abstracts from such deeds as give locations of farms and homesteads have been given and the names of the adjoining owners and the names of the witnesses to the deeds and wills have been added so as to show who were their neighbors and friends. Every deed or settlement of an estate by an administrator, which showed any relationship has been quoted as well as the wills, so that the searcher may know the authority upon which the line of descent is based.

Often the date of birth has been given only approximately. In these cases the date has been obtained from the age given on a Census report, or perhaps from the age given at the time of marriage or death when the age in years only has been recorded. In these cases the year may be correct or it may be one year in error.

In a work of this type there must of a necessity be many errors, since there are at least three transcriptions made before reaching this final one, but as references are given for most of the earlier records, anyone desiring absolute accuracy can easily obtain it by consulting the original records from which the ones copied here have been taken. A Genealogy should never be used as a final authority, but only as a guide to the line of descent and a book of reference to original records which are the basis of the family history.

I wish to express my thanks to the Colwells of the present day who have so kindly sent me records of their parents and their children, and also to those descendants of Colwells in other states who have taken the time to write me of their lines and have aided me in linking their branches to the Rhode Island lines.

ROBERT COLWELL OF PROVIDENCE

According to tradition Robert Colwell came from Warwickshire in England sometime about 1650, but this tradition has never been verified by research in England. It is thought that he was in Providence as early as 1653.

On the 28th of April 1654 he purchased of John Fenner "The house and house lot which was formerly Richard Pray's lying betwixt Edward Inman's and John Smith's." (Early Providence Records, Book II, p. 14). This house of John Pray stood on the Towne Street just north of where Abbott Street now enters North Main Street, and the house lot probably extended as far as the present Hope Street, as did most of the home lots of the early owners, so that in all probability the present Larch Street is laid out on his property.

In the following year on Oct. 2, 1655 we find that at a Towne Meeting "it is ordered that Thomas Olney, Thomas Harris, Arthur Fenner, and Roger Williams once more settle the bounds between Samuel Comstock and Robert Colwell. These were the southerly bounds. (E.P.R., II, p. 84)

On January 15, 1657 Robert Colwell sold this place to Roger Mowry in these words "unto Roger Mowrie the dwelling house & Lot whereon it standeth, containing 4 akers more or lessee with the addition before the fence." (E.P.R., II, 16). But Robert continued to live here for we find it recorded on April 27, 1659 that "Roger Mawrey in the face of the Court acknowledgeth that he sold to Robert Colwell the house and land which Robert Colwell now dwelleth in and on, the said lot being bounded on the East with the Comon, on the west with the highway, on the north with the land of Edward Inman, on the south with the land of John Smyth." (E.P.R., II, 22).

On this same day Apr. 27, 1659, the Town granted to him a piece of land adjoining this lot. "Layde out unto Robert Colwell by Richard Waterman Towne Deputey, a home share or house lot lying on the East side of that lott which Robert Colwell his dwelling house now standeth on, and also on the easte side of the home share of Edward Inman, bounding on the west with a highway, on the easte with the Comon, on the north with the Comon, on the south with the land of Christopher Smyth." (E.P.R., II, 28). This additional piece is probably land just east of Hope St. and extending from Cypress and Sessions streets north to Forest and beyond. The highway on the west was the present Hope St. At this time most of the land east of Hope Street was Common and frequently the town granted to the inhabitants certain parts of it.

Robert Colwell must have come into possession of some land which is not on record, for in the latter half of the deed to Roger Mowry dated Jan. 15, 1657 he sold also "a share of meddowe bordering by John Brownes piece of meddowe at ye heade of ye Second Runn which cometh into ye West River at ye north side thereof." (E.P.R., II, 16). This land must lie somewhat to the west of the present Charles Street and east of Sanskuck. In a grant to George May on August 25, 1657 Robert Colwell is mentioned as owning a pond either in or near our present Lincoln Woods, for the Swan Pond mentioned in the deed is supposed to be a pond just to the north of Breakneck Hill Road. "Granted to George May the pond called Swan Pond and the pond that was formerly given to Robert Colwell with a parcel of land lying on the top of a hill between three hills to the westward of the pond in full for his whole share of meddow." (E.P.R., II, 10)

On July 27, 1658 Robert Colwell took part in a land transaction and for a very short time owned a plot of land on the north side of the present Olney Street, then called Dexter's Lane. This was the original home lot of George Palmer, who sold it to Thomas Roberts. Robert Colwell then bought it and on the same day turned it over to Roger Mowry, who held it for eight months and then sold it to Thomas Olney as the follow-

"I Thomas Roberts of Providence have sold to Robert Colwell of the same towne a percell of land, Namely a house lott, or home share with the fencing thereto belonging, the which land I the said Thomas Roberts was truly possessed of--- this said land lieng in that ffield where John Browne of Providence now dwelleth; bounded on the west with a highway, bounded on the north with a piece of land which James Ashton of Providence sold to John Browne; bounded on the east with another highway, the which highway lieth between two ffields, namely that field where Edward Smith his house lot lieth in and that ffield where John Browne now dwelleth; bounded on the south with a highway which lieth bewtweene ye ffield where on Gregory Dexter his dwelling house Now standeth at ye present sealing hereof & that ffield wherein John Browne at this sealing hereof dwelleth ---Dated July 27, 1658. And on the same day "I Robert Colwell have sold Roger Morrie---a percell of land with the fencing thereunto belonging the which land I ye said Robert Colwell purchased of Thomas Roberts of Providence"(E.P.R., IV.260; V.p.1.)

"I Roger Morry have sold Thomas Olney Senior, my right in the home share of land which I formerly bought of Robert Colwell & ye original right of it did belong to George Palmer and by him sold to Thomas Roberts and by him Thomas Roberts sold to Robert Colwell---bounded on the north with a home share of land which formerly was James Ashtons, but now in the possession of John Browne; on ye west side with a wolfe trappe which was formerly William Arnolds, but now ye aforesaid Thomas Olneys, or with a l little lane or part of it. Dated Mar. 19, 1658/59."(E.P.R., V.2).

Besides these lands Robert Colwell had several other pieces laid out to him. In the year 1658" Laid out to Robert Colwell a house lott containing ffive acres lieng in the Neck at the head of a Lott which he the said Robert sold to Roger Morrey only a highway betweene,--- bounding on the north with Anna Smith(which formerly was John Smith mason on the south with Lawrence Wilkinson and on the west with a highway. Laid out by Richard Waterman Towne Deputy in the year 1658.(E.P.R., I.42).

The "Neck" spoken of in this deed refers to the land bounded by the Seekonk River on the east and south, by the Moshassuck and the Providence Rivers on the west, and on the north it probably extended as far north as the present Rochambeau Ave. or even farther north. The "head of the lotts" is our present Hope Street. So it would seem that by this grant Robert Colwell came into possession of five acres on Hope St. and east of it, perhaps about the present Morris Ave. and Cypress St.(E.P.R., I.42).

"In the yeare 1658 Laid out by John Sayles Towne Deputy unto Robert Colwell a percell of Low Swampe land and Meddow, in lieu of all his share of meddow or Right of Meddow, it lieng and being on both sides of the brooke which runneth out of John Browne his meddow, it being about five acres, bounding on the northeasterne with the meddow of John Browne on the southwesterne with the said Robert Colwell his own land, on the Southeasterne side with the Comon, the northerne side partly with the Comon and partly with the said Robert his aforesaid sixteen acres of land By this aforesaid land Highwayes are not to be dammified. A sufficient cartway was by the sirveyors allowed Thro the said sixteen Acres and other peece on the Southearterne side of the brooke to goe and come to and from the Woods Towardes Observation Meddowe."(E.P.R., I.44)

"Also sixteen acres of upland lieng westward from the towne of Providence about Two miles distant and westward from the Moshosick River. "One of the bounds is an "ash tree standing at the meeting of two brookes one of the brookes running out of John Browne his meddow, the other coming out of the woods from the Westard. Laid out in the year 1660 by Thomas Olney, Senior, Towne Deputy."(E.P.R., I.42)

In North Providence just south of the Mineral Spring Pike, between the Louisquissett Pike and Woodward Road, there are two brooks which seem to answer this description. They feed Randall Pond, uniting to the north of the pond.

In 1664 there was another grant to Robert Colwell of land adjoining this piece. It was in two Parcels, one adjoining it on the north west of the "brooke that runneth from the westward" and the other on the southeastern part of the said sixteen acres bounding on the south end with a walnut tree standing by a Brooke side and so to range Northward unto a saw-pitt--- These two parcels being to make up what was wanting of the Lott which he bought of John Fenner, they both being in quantity about one acre. This land was alid out by John Browne Surveior for the Towne of Providence in the yeare 1664."

From this last statement it would seem that Robert Colwell's lot on the Towne Street lacked two acres of the regulation size of a home lot, so the town to treat him fairly set off to him meadow land in the outskirts next to some that he already possessed. Observation Meadow spoken of in the deed of 1658 was the name given to that fertile piece of land north of Mineral Spring Pike and south of Olney Pond. Since the early cartways later became the pikes and main roads it is possible that one cartway mentioned in the deed is the Louisquissett Pike and the other the Mineral Spring Pike. But on the whole it is rather difficult to identify exactly the location of the outlying lands and meadows held by the early settlers in Providence, since the many chestnuts, oaks, maples, walnuts and ash trees used as boundaries have long ago disappeared; brooks have been filled in; hills levelled, swamps drained and filled, so we have to be satisfied with a general idea of the location of the lands granted.

On May 7, 1656 Robert Colwell was chosen to serve as constable and on the 18th of May 1658 he was made Freeman. Twice he was drawn to serve on the jury, once on Oct. 27, 1659 and again on Feb. 27, 1657. On April 27, 1657 it was ordered that "Robert Colwell have libertie to change his meddowe". (E.P.R., XV.71, 73; IV.120; II.103; III.49)

Because Robert Colwell owned a home lot and became a Freeman at an early date he was considered a proprietor and whenever a division of of the outlying lands was made he always had a share as his Right. These Rights were given out by lot and all who had Rights drew for the location of that Right.

At first the western boundary of Providence was the Four Mile Line measuring from Foxes Hill westward. Then later another purchase was made from the Indians which extended the boundary to the Seven Mile Line. This line is marked by the eastern boundary of Scituate, Glocester, and Burrillville at the present day.

It is probable that the sixteen acres laid out to Robert in 1660 came to him as his Right gained by the purchase of the Home Lot from John Fenner, as it was a Right in the First Division of land which division had been made before Robert came to Providence. Thereafter he drew lands in his own Right until he sold this Right to Roger Mowry and Richard Arnold. When the drawing of lands on this Right took place during the next fifty years they were always recorded as on "the original Right of Robert Colwell."

Thus it is that we find on the Early Providence Records, Book. III, p.73, the following item under the date of Mar. 17, 1665/66. "The names of those who drew papers and their places in order as it fell unto them at a Towne Meeting fferuarey the 19th 1665; it being for the devision of land on the East Side of the Seven Mile Line." Robert Colwell drew lot 667.

Then in April of the same year 1666, on the 27th it is recorded, "Att a quarter Meeting It is Graunted unto Robert Collwell that hee may have his land and meddow Recorded in our Towne Booke. (E.P.R., III.82)

Later we find that on April 12, 1675 there was a division of the lands on the west side of the Seven Mile Line. Robert Colwell drew lot number 1, and on May 24, 1675 when there was a second division of the lands between the Seven Mile Line and the Four Mile Line, Robert Collwell drew lot number 49, and again on March 17, 1683 he drew lot number 18 in a division of lands on the west side of the Seven Mile Line. In all these three cases the land did not come into the possession of Robert Colwell for he had sold out his rights previous to 1675. These drawings of land were made in his Right by those who at the given date were in the possession of the Right which had been originally owned by Robert Colwell. (E.P.R., IV.46,47,65.) The next boundary to the west of the Seven Mile Line was the Twenty Mile Line, which is now practically the same as the western boundary of the State.

At this time there was living in Providence on the Towne Street at its extreme northern end on the corner of Hernden Lane (now Hochambean Avenue), a man named William White, who had come from Boston with his wife Elizabeth and their family of daughters. One of these named Elizabeth married Benjamin Hernden, a neighbor, another named Ursula married John Bennett, while a third called Margaret became the wife of Robert Colwell. Just when this marriage took place is not known. It was probably about 1659 or a bit earlier, for we find on the records that "

"Robert Collwell, sonn of Robert Collwell and Margrett his wife was Borne att Providence upon the 9 day of Janvary in the yr 1661/62."

(This date is of course 1662 in our present way of reckoning years)

"Elizabeth Collwell daughter of Robert Collwell and Margrett his wife was Borne at providence upon the first Day of July in the year 1664."

Entered pr John Whipple Clerk (E.P.R., V.325)

Before he had any children of his own Robert and Margaret took into their home the little daughter of their next door neighbor on the south. John Smith, mason, as he was called to distinguish him from John Smith, the miller, who also lived in Providence, died leaving a wife and a family of small children without sufficient means to care for them all. At this time it was customary to place orphans and fatherless children in the families of those who would care for them and teach them a trade. On page 5 of Book III of the Records we find this paragraph.

"Robert Collwell hath this day given in Bond unto the Towne for securitye of Margaret Smith, a coppie thereof ffolloweth (viz) See it Knowne unto all men by these presentes that I Robert Collwell of New England doe bind myself, my heirs, Exsecutors and Administrators in the Sum of Tenn Pounds Sterling; to save and keepe harmless the Towne of providence from any charge or trouble, that may arise ,or fall out by a little child named Margaret Smith, the child of the deceased John Smith and I the aforesaid Robert Collwell doe bind myself in the som abovesaid and my heirs, exsecutors and Administrators aforesaid to free the said child Margaret from being chargeable unto the said Towne of providence untill the said child margaret be ffourteene yeares of Age. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this Twentye seaven of Aprill in the yeare 1661

Signed and Ed unto the Towne in the face of the Court as Witnesseth

The marke of Robert Collwell

Thomas Olney Senior, Deputye

Thomas Olney, Junior Clarke

From a deed given by George Way on July 27, 1669 we learn that Robert Colwell moved from the Towne Street and built for himself a home on his land in the outskirts, on the land west of the present Charles Street, perhaps at the head of Robbins Brook, which is the brook which flows parallel with Charles Street in a southerly direction.

"I George Way of providence sell to Richard Evernden---half a share of Meddow neer Walsingham, the house of Thomas Walling west and by north About half a mile Distant, from the house of Robert Collwelle Eastward Near half a mile distant. July 27, 1669." (E.P.R., III.267)

This proximity of the home of Robert to Walsingham, the home of Thomas Walling, proved fatal to the domestic happiness of both families, for Margaret and Thomas left their homes and children and ran away together.

In the second volume of the Colonial Records of Rhode Island (p.204) it is written, "whereas Robert Colwell putt in a petition to the last May Court for a freedom from his wife Margrett, and now againe to this Courte haveinge renewed his petition; upon searious debate upon the matter the Court findinge, both by witnesses and circumstances plainly makeing it appear to them, that there is sufficient grounds to give the sayd Collwell a discharge from his sayd wife, therefore be it enacted by the present Court that the sayd Robert Colwell is absolutely freed from his late wife Margaret white, and he is at liberty to contract another marriage." July 2, 1667.

This is supposed to have been the first divorce granted in the Colony. It is at least the first one of which any record has been kept in the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

After this experience Robert Colwell no longer cared to remain in the town of Providence. Having already sold to Roger Mowry in 1662 all his rights between the Seven Mile Line and the Twenty Mile Line, he now sold to Richard Arnold all the rest of his possessions, and went to Long Island to live.

I Robert Collwell formerly inhabitant of providence in the Colony of Rhode Island and providence plantations in New England, but now resident on long Island, under the government of his Highness the Duke of Yorke--sell to Richard Arnold, inhabitant of the aforementioned Towne of providence ---all the right-----I have within the limite of the aforesayd Towne of providence, of which right there is already laid out a house lot containeing five acres lying in the Neck and at the head of a Lott which I the sayd Robert Collwell formerly sold to Roger Mowry (formerly) inhabitant of providence." Bounds mention Anna Smith and Lawrence Wilkinson. He then adds to this sale the sixteen acre piece with the two parcels adjoining and also the swampy section which had the cartways across it. The date of the deed was Dec. 30, 1670.

Robert Colwell's name appears in several other places on the records. Sometimes it is in giving bounds of pieces of land that are sold. Once he witnessed a deed and once he sat on a coroner's jury to pass upon the death of a child of the Widow Ballou, who fell into the Moshassuck River and was drowned. We find his name on the list of those men who on May 31, 1666 swore allegiance to Charles the Second, King of England land. (R.P.R., I.55; V.337; III.101).

Robert Colwell probably died on Long Island. We hear no more about him, but Margaret returned to Providence and on June 19, 1669 was married by William Carpenter to Thomas Wallen. Thomas lived only a few years after this. His will dated 1675 made "my loving wife Margrett Wallin" the executrix and left in her care "my children, John, William, James, Cornelius, and Carshon." But Margaret did not remain a widow long for we find that she married about 1677 or 1678 Daniel Abbott and had by him a daughter Mary Abbott, born in December 1679. They had also a son Daniel Abbott This was the Daniel Abbott who became one of the noted men in this years following here in Providence. At the death of his father this Daniel was made administrator on his father's estate. For some reason or other he failed to furnish his mother with what she felt was her share of her husband's estate, so she complained to the Town Council. The Council ordered Daniel Abbott Jr. to supply his mother with a competence to live on. The date of her death is not known. Her father William White died at the time that she was the wife of Thomas Walling and she is called Margaret Wallen in his will. It is likely that during the period of her absence from Providence her two Colwell children were cared for by their grandparents, but there is no record to show it. After her marriage to Thomas Walling they probably returned to their mother's care, and accompanied her to Daniel Abbott's home upon her third marriage.

SECOND GENERATION

2 ROBERT COLWELL(Robert),b.Jan.9,1661/2,in Providence,R.I.(V.R.); d.June 1748 in his 87th year,(Austin). He married Amy Downing, who was probably the daughter of John Downing.

From the following "Towne Paper" it would seem that after the separation of his parents Robert remained with his mother, and upon her third marriage became a member of the household of Daniel Abbott. When reading the paper it must be remembered that at this period a step father was called father-in-law,since he had become a child's father by law.

Towne Paper (0384)

"To ye Towne mett this 8th day of ffeb;1682/83.

These are to desire the Towne that they would be pleased to accomodate me with a portion of Land in this Towneshipp of providence(Heare being my birth-right) & I having a desire hier to settle to produce a Livelyhood by my labour: But & if you shall not be pleased see to see cause to accomodate me, I pray that my ffather-in-law Daniell Abbott his request to you ye Last Towne meeting on ye first of this month ffeb; may be granted me, for which I shall be Thankful unto you And remaine

Yours to serve you in any office of Love

Robert Collwell"

Just how early he went to Bristol to reside is not known,but he was there in 1699 and remained there until 1713 and probably even later. The births of all his children are recorded there. Sometime before 1722 he returned to Providence, for we find it recorded in the "Early Providence Records"(Vol.IX,pp.141 and 150) under the date,"Aug.20,1722 Then Robert Colwell gave notis that he had Taken up a stray meier of a dark bay or blackish Culler; having nither brand nor eare marke: but hath shooes on her fore feete." "December ye first day 1725. This day Robert Colwell gave notis that he had taken up three stray Cattle supposed to be two years old and vantage; two of them being Hiffers of a Red Culler having sum white under there belleys and Earemarked with a Crop of on the top of the Left Eare and a slit in the middle of the Crop: and a streere being of a pide Culler Red and White: Earemarked with a Crop of on the top of the Left Eare and a half Penney in the under side of the Right Eare."

In the early days when there were few fences the cattle often strayed far from the home pasturage. Any one who found such was supposed to care for it and report it to the Town Council, who then advertised it on posters hung in a conspicuous place in the Town. The owner could then obtain his strays by paying the cost of their keep. If the town had a pound for stray cattle the finder left it there instead of caring for it among his own cattle.

18 Fisher Fiske, b. Sept. 29, 1742; m. June 20, 1784, Hannah Dyer, dau. of Samuel Dyer of North Providence.

6 ROBERT COLWELL (Robert, Robert), b. Jan. 26, 1702, at Bristol, R.I.; d. at Gloucester, R.I., in December 1797, aged 95 years. (Newspaper of Dec. 14, 1797). He married July 23, 1728, at Providence, (V.R.), Martha Winsor, b. Dec. 10, 1703; d. in 1797. She was the daughter of Samuel and Mary (Harding) Winsor. This Samuel Winsor was the son of Samuel and Mercy (Williams) Winsor and so was a grandson of Roger Williams. Hence all the Colwells who trace their ancestry to Robert Colwell and his wife Martha Winsor are descendants of Roger Williams. Martha's brother Joseph married Deborah Matthewson, and they were the parents of two daughters, who married into the Colwell family.

In 1733 Robert Colwell was living in Providence as is shown by a deed which he witnessed, in which Benjamin Waterman sold land to his son, Charles Waterman. On Dec. 8, 1744 he purchased a piece of land from his father-in-law, Samuel Winsor. On April 3, 1745 he was admitted freeman in the town of Gloucester. He appears on the records of that town as one of a committee, chosen Nov. 6, 1752 to lay out roads in the town. He held this office again in 1753 and in 1761. On Nov. 6, 1763 Robert Colwell performed the necessary work on the highway required of all inhabitants living in the outskirts.

When the Census of 1774 was taken, the household of Robert Colwell of Gloucester numbered 2 males over 16; 2 under 16; one female over 16; and one under 16. He is recorded in the Census of 1777 as a resident of Gloucester and over 60 years old. At the time of the Census of 1790 he must have been living with one of his children, since he does not appear as the head of a family. His death was recorded in several of the newspapers. His age was given in one as 96 years and 9 months.

The first purchase of land which Robert made was from Fisher Potter. Fisher had married Mary Winsor, the sister of Martha. On the next day Robert purchased from Martha's father. These transactions are recorded in the Gloucester Registry of Deeds.

(3.56) I, Fisher Potter of Scituate R.I., for £70 sell to Robert Colwell of Gloucester, yeoman, ---land near Obadiah Brown and 1/2 mile east of the house of Joseph Winsor. Dated Dec. 7, 1744 and witnessed by Elisha Knowlton and Joseph Winsor.

(3.49) I, Samuel Winsor of Providence, yeoman, for love to my beloved son-in-law, Robert Colwell of the same town & my daughter, Martha, his wife, sell 60 acres in Gloucester, which is the eastern part of my land adjoining the east side of my son Joseph's land, where he now lives. Dated Dec. 8, 1744, and witnessed by Stephen Hooper and Daniel Jencks.

On Aug. 27, 1771 Robert exchanged land with Eleazar Bowen as is shown by the following deeds, both being of that date.

(8.393) Robert Colwell of Gloucester, yeoman for £30 to Eleazar Bowen, a part of that land I purchased of Fisher Potter of Scituate, near Bowen's land. Witnessed by Zebedee Hopkins and Zebedee Hopkins, Jr.

(8.394) Eleazar Bowen to Robert Colwell of Gloucester, yeoman, for £30, land which I purchased from Stephen Keech. Same witnesses as above.

(8.487) Robert Colwell, yeoman, purchased from Richard Tucker 1/2 part of 17 acres which he held jointly with Samuel Steere (on both sides of the Chepachet River) as shown in the deed of Andrew Brown and Elisha Brown. This deed was dated Feb. 26, 1773 and signed by Richard Tucker and his wife Anne Tucker. Susannah Hopkins and Zebedee Hopkins, Jr.

(9.114) Joseph Winsor, yeoman, sold to Robert Colwell, yeoman, of Gloucester, 3 acres on the westerly side of Robert Colwell's homestead farm he now liveth on near Jeremiah Phillips land. Dated May 21, 1773 and witnessed by Charles Harris and Zebedee Hopkins, Jr.

These deeds show us that Robert Colwell had his home near Joseph Winsor and that his farm was upwards of 60 acres. We find one other record on the books. It is stated that in 1768 he was one of those who voted for a State Constitution. There is no authentic list of his children, but he had at least the following,

Children, b. in Gloucester:

*19 Joseph Colwell, b. Dec. 18, 1729.

*20 Martha Colwell, b. May 6, 1734.

*21 Amy Colwell, b. May 31, 1731.

*22 Lydia Colwell, b. Dec. 12, 1732.

23 Marcy Colwell, b. May 3, 1738.

24 Lillis Colwell, b. Apr. 22, 1738; m. Nov. 29, 1759, at Gloucester, (V.R.); Elijah Hawkins, b. Mar. 6, 1737.

25 Mary Colwell, b. Jan. 15, 1740; m. as his second wife, Richard Harris.

*26 Benjamin Colwell, b. Feb. 10, 1745.

7 AMEY COLWELL (Robert, Robert), b. June 23, 1703; m. (1) by Richard Brown at Providence, (V.R.) on Nov. 1, 1724, John Fenner, son of Arthur and Mary (Smith) Fenner. (Arthur Fenner was the son of Arthur, and Mary Smith was the daughter of John Smith, the miller, and his wife Sarah Whipple.) John Fenner died on Nov. 24, 1725 and Amey married (2) Joseph Thornton. After his death she married (3) on Apr. 11, 1728, Edward Fenner, the brother of her first husband. The names of her children are not listed, but it is known that she had several. (The records have a Colwell Thornton and a Solomon Thornton, who were probably her sons or grandsons.)

Child:

27 Mary Fenner, b. Apr. 20, 1725; m. Oct. 6, 1743, Seth Dean of Plainfield Conn.

8 RICHARD COLWELL (Robert, Robert), b. Mar. 23, 1705, at Bristol, R.I.; d. Oct. 20, 1786, at Foster, R.I. (See inventory of his estate filed at Foster. He published at Bristol, on July 8, 1725 his intentions to marry Sarah Riley. He m. (2) Mary Randall, daughter of William and Abial Randall of Providence. She died May 21, 1801, at Foster. (See inventory of her estate at Foster). Richard Colwell was a hatmaker or feltmaker.

Richard Colwell was made Freeman of Scituate in May 1737. The name of Richard Colwell appears again on the records in 1748 as having obtained the rights of a Freeman, but this probably refers to his son Richard, as he would be about 21 years of age in that year.

Job Randall, the brother of his wife, sold Richard Colwell a piece of land in Scituate, on Jan. 2, 1738/9 and the deed was witnessed by Henry Randall and John Tyler.

I Job Randall of Scituate, yeoman--to Richard Colwell of Scituate, Hattmaker, for £141---52 acres and 111 rods of land, which is the northern part of my homestead farm.

(3.83) William Sheldon and Rebecca Sheldon, for £200 sold to Richard Colwell of Scituate, yeoman, land in Scituate known as the Westconnaid and is the west end of our homestead farm, where we now dwell, about 200 acres. Dated Oct. 24, 1743 and witnessed by Henry and Elizabeth Randall.

(3.405) Richard Colwell of Scituate, feltmaker, for £260 sold to Job Randall land bounding on Moses Lippitt, Dated Nov. 15, 1743.

(3.315) Richard Colwell of Scituate, for £45 sold to William Sheldon, land in the easterly part of my farm, where I now dwell. Sept. 19, 1747.

(3.317) William Sheldon sold to Richard Colwell, 24 acres where Richard Colwell now dwells. Dated Sept. 21, 1747.

(3.241) William Sheldon and Rebecca Sheldon sold to Richard Colwell 22 acres in the north west part of their farm near Colwell's.

From these deeds it is evident that Richard Colwell had a piece of property in the Westconnaid section near the Sheldon property as well as the homestead farm upon which he dwelt. When the town of Foster was set off from Scituate, the line between the two towns came very close to or perhaps crossed the farm. The house which Richard built is still standing in the village of Clayville, just north of the main road on a lane. Not far from it is the cemetery in which probably both Richard and his wife Mary are buried. Some of the graves are marked with stones without inscriptions, and doubtless here are Richard and Mary lie. Several of their children are buried here as the stones show. The cemetery has always been called the Colwell Cemetery.

(6.768) "I Richard Colwell of Scituate, yeoman, for the love and goodwill sell to my beloved son, Richard Colwell, Jr., a certain farm in that part called Westconnaid, beginning at the south side of Killingly Road, where the westerly line of Christopher Potter's land comes---heirs of William Rhodes, dec'd---about 60 acres." Dated Apr. 15, 1775. Simeon Potter and Thomas Hill were the witnesses.

Richard Colwell died without a will and the Town Council ordered Charles Walker and Samuel Jenks to take an Inventory of his goods and estate. It is recorded thus,--"Richard Colwell who departed this life on Oct. 20, 1786, his Inventory taken by us, Jan. 4, 1787." It is valued at £36-9-10. Then it states that Mary Colwell and Richard Colwell were the persons who set forth said estate and so the Inventory was accepted. Then the Council ordered "you Richard Colwell are empowered to take unto yourself possession of all the goods, etc. of your honored father Richard Colwell, dec'd---". He took possession Feb. 20, 1787.

A voucher was filed in 1795, which gave a list of the bills paid by the estate at settlement. It is interesting in that it gives the names of the neighbors living at that time in Foster. Simeon Potter's bill was 5-15-3; Richard Colwell, 2-9-4; Lemuel Potter and wife, 2-17-7½; Joel Young, 2-17-7½; James Williams, 0-3-6; John Westcott, 0-2-6; John Borden, 2-17-7½; Charles Walker, 0-4-0; Richard Colwell, 0-5-0; Mary Colwell, 10-3-0; John Westcott, 0-3-3; Jonathan Anthony, 0-10-6; Stephen Smith, Jr. 0-4-0; Samuel Jenks, 0-1-7; Cyril Carpenter, 1-16-10; Samuel Jenks, 0-3-0; Simeon Potter, 0-1-6. "At a Town Council holden in and for the town of Foster on the 18th day of May A.D. 1795, the foregoing vouchers were presented and read and approved by said council and ordered to be recorded; the said vouchers were left in the charge of the former clerk, but he had not recorded them so they are recorded by me, Nehemiah Angell". From these vouchers we learn that the share of each child was £2-17-7½, and that the widow received £10-3-5.

The will of Mary dated Feb. 24, 1801 was briefly as follows,--"In the name of God, Amen, I Mary Colwell of Foster, in the County of Providence and State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, widow of Richard Colwell, late of Foster, dec'd---after the payment of my just debts, give (1) to my son Richard Colwell and his wife Rhoda Colwell 1/3 of my personal estate; (2) to my daughter Elizabeth Barden, wife of John Barden--1/3 part of my personal estate; (3) to my daughter Bial Potter's children, namely Simeon Potter, Jr., Richard Potter, and Bial Potter, the other third part to be divided equally. And as I have heretofore given my daughter Mary Potter, wife to Lemuel Potter and Hannah Young and Amey Potter what I considered to be their full portion, so I give to them nothing more in this my last will and testament and I nominate my said son Richard Colwell to be my sole executor,--Witnessed by Rowland Greene, Susannah Phillips, and Job Randall. It was proved on Sept. 7, 1801 and the Inventory was taken June 20, 1801. It states that Mary Colwell departed this life May 21, 1801 and that it was taken by Job Randall, Samuel Jencks, and Susannah Phillips.

The final report on the settlement of her estate was brought before the Town Council of Foster on Jan. 14, 1804. "Estate of Mary Colwell, late of Foster, dec'd; Richard Colwell, executor to her last will and testament. Bills were paid to Rowland Greene, Jonathan Anthony, Nehemiah Angell, Susannah Phillips, James Whipple, Samuel Jencks, Job Randall. John Borden and Elizabeth Borden received $28.55 for their share" as full discharge of their part of said estate." "Simeon Potter, Richard Potter, and Abial Potter received $28.55 for their part of said estate as per receipt".

9 ELIZABETH COLWELL (Robert, Robert), b. Sept. 4, 1706; d. Jan. 24, 1773; m. Thomas Westcott, b. in Providence, 1707; d. Mar. 24, 1772. He was the son of Samuel and Freelove (Fenner) Westcott.

Samuel Westcott was made Freeman in 1732. He owned Field's Point at the entrance to Providence Harbor, which he sold to Jeremiah Field. He also owned land bordering on Broad Cove. In 1774 he purchased 118 acres eight miles west of Providence. His widow made her son-in-law, William Field, the executor of her will. (Westcott Gen.)

10 JOHN COLWELL (Robert, Robert), b. July 12, 1708, at Bristol, R.I.; d. Dec. 21, 1792, at Foster, R.I.; m. Margaret Sprague, b. May 14, 1716; dau. of William and Hannah (Mitchell) Sprague, of Hingham, Mass.

Margaret Sprague is mentioned in the will of her father, dated July 24, 1751 as Margaret Colwell, (Worcester Probate). John Colwell was admitted Freeman in Providence, May 4, 1742. When the Census of 1774 was taken he was a resident of Scituate with a household consisting of 2 males over 16 years and one female. In the Census of 1777 he is recorded as a resident of Scituate and over 60 years of age.

From a study of the land registry we find that John Colwell owned 116 acres in the center of the present village of Thornton, on the north side of a highway and the westerly side of the Pocasset River and that he had there a saw-mill and a grist-mill. From there he went to a farm on the edge of Mashpaug Pond, probably situated on the present Reservoir Ave. After selling this property he located for awhile in Johnston, near Daniel Manton's homestead. But in 1762 and 1764 he purchased land in Scituate in the northerly part, now within the bounds of Foster at a beautiful spot called Oak Hill. There he built a large house and his sons located near him. The house is still standing on the top of the hill. It has a fine outlook over the valley. It is now in a dilapidated condition, but it shows that it was a fine building in its prime. The cemetery is somewhat to the north. Some of his children are buried here with stones bearing inscriptions marking their graves. There are others without inscriptions. Doubtless they mark the graves of John and Margaret Colwell. The following deeds from the Providence Registry show the source of the above information.

(A-10.413) Toleration Harris sold to John Colwell of Providence, yeoman, for £252, land on the road leading from said Providence to Plainfield, Conn., being about 115 acres, and is bounded on the west by land of Jabez Westcott, south on said road, and north partly by land of Jacob Clark and partly with the dividing line between said Providence and Pawtuxett and east with the land of Richard Fenner. Dated June 8, 1741.

In the next year John sold a portion of this farm to Ebenezer Sisco and four years later another portion to John Stone.

(11.85) John Colwell of Providence, yeoman, to Ebenezer Sisco, for £64--32 acres in Providence a half mile west from the house of Capt. Joseph Fenner and is part of those lands called the proprietary of Pawtuxett on the western side of the pauchasett River---south on the country road that goes from Providence to Connecticut; west on Jabez Westcott and north on John Colwell's land and east on Richard Fenner. Dated June 15, 1742 and witnessed by John Warner and Benjamin Westcott.

(12.300) I John Colwell of Providence, yeoman, to John Stone late of Gloucester, for £600 sell---the farm whereon I now dwell---54 acres containing one dwelling house and saw-mill and 1/2 a grist-mill,---and all the other buildings thereon. One boundary-a heap of stones on the Pawtuxett line. Dated Oct. 30, 1746. Margaret Colwell signed the deed as wife and Gershom Shearman and Henry Harris witnessed the deed.

(12.190) Finnex Crawford sold to John Colwell of Providence, yeoman, 20 acres at a lake called Masipaugue in Providence, bounding on the north with a highway, on the east with land of John Hoyle, south with Richard Waterman, and west with John Pain. Dated Mar. 1, 1747.

(12.501) John Colwell for £900 sold this same 20 acres to Samuel Smith of Scituate on Mar. 20, 1750. His wife Margaret joined in the sale and Stephen Smith and Resolved Waterman, Jr. witnessed.

The next few years John Colwell spent in that part of Providence which was set off as Johnston in 1759. He lived first on land owned by John Angell, but on Aug. 23, 1759 he purchased a farm from Henry Harris near the Daniel Manton homestead. (Johnston Deeds.)

But before buying this Johnston land he had already in 1754 purchased a piece of land in Scituate from Capt. David Arnold on Mar. 1st. (Scituate Deeds, Book IV, p. 191) This land is described as on the west side of the Seven Mile Line--being about 388 acres at a place called Oak Hill. This is the farm upon which the John Colwell house now stands. It may be reached by travelling west from Providence on the Danielson Pike as far as Hopkins Mills. At that village just before crossing the Ponagansett River take the Winsor Road north. After about a quarter of a mile where the road forks bear right and about a half mile farther north take the first lane to the left and travel northwest for about a third of a mile, until the farm is reached.

It would seem that John Colwell did not take up his residence here until after 1762, for when he bought a piece of land from Consider Luther of Scituate he still gave Johnston as his place of residence and that transaction took place on the 2nd of July. (Scituate Deeds, 5.185).

By 1765 John's three oldest sons wanted farms of their own, so we find that on May 4, 1765, John sold to my son John Colwell, Jr. 96 acres of the north west part of my farm, which I purchased of Capt. Edward Arnold, near son William's land and near son Daniel's land. This deed was witnessed by William and Daniel Colwell. On the same day John deeded to son William Colwell, husbandman, 94 acres, the south-west part of the farm I bought of Capt. Edward Arnold. This deed was witnessed by John and Daniel Colwell. And again on the same day he sold to son Daniel the north part of the farm I purchased from Capt. Edward Arnold,--about 106 acres. This deed was witnessed by John and William Colwell. The fourth son Christopher was not yet of age, so he did not receive anything on this day. On Aug.13,1773, however, John deeded "to Christopher, my son," the lot I purchased of Capt. Edward Arnold, which land bounds north on Daniel Colwell's land, west on William Colwell's, and is where I now live. Though Margaret was still living no wife signed off her dower rights.

On this same day with the same witnesses, William Brownell and Thomas Harris, John deeded to his son William, 13 more acres, which adjoin where William now liveth, near Daniel's and Christopher's and John, Jr. It is likely that John lived with Christopher in the house which he had built until his death. Margaret was living as late as 1778 for she signed a deed which John and Christopher gave to Rufus Sprague of Johnston. Dated April 9, 1778. Both wives, Margaret and Martha signed this deed. (Scituate 7.153).

In 1781 the town of Foster was set off from Scituate, and this farm was in the part now become Foster, so the final transaction of John Colwell is found in the Foster Registry of deeds.

(3.96) I, John Colwell of Foster, yeoman, to my son Christopher, the lot where I now live, bounded north on Christopher's, east by the highway and Joseph Hopkins, west on son William's, south on son Christopher's and is all I now own, being about 35 acres. Dated Feb. 25, 1786, and witnessed by John Webster, Enoch Hopkins, and Rufus Sanders. There was no signature of Margaret as wife.

11 WILLIAM COLWELL (Robert, Robert), b. Dec. 23, 1709 in Bristol,; living as late as Jan. 18, 1792 (Glocester Deed, 12.107); m. Anne Olney, b. about 1710, dau. of Epenetus and Mary (Williams) Olney. Mary Williams was daughter of Daniel Williams and granddaughter of Roger Williams, so all Colwells who trace their ancestry to William and Anne Colwell are descendants of Roger Williams.

William Colwell purchased from John Smith on Apr. 1, 1738, 45 acres near Epenetus Olney's land in Gloucester. As William gave his residence as Providence, when buying this land, it is evident that this year marks his removal to Gloucester, for he was made Freeman of Gloucester in that year. He appears as Ensign of a Gloucester Co. in the years, 1746, 1747 and 1748. In 1761 he witnessed a deed of Zephaniah Eddy's in Gloucester (Deeds 1.78).

On Feb. 26, 1776 he divided among four of his sons, Charles, David, William, and James most of his property, keeping for himself about three acres, which on Jan. 18, 1792 he deeded to three of these.

(9.125, Gloucester Deeds) William Colwell of Gloucester,--to son Charles Colwell, cordwainer, the south-west part of my farm--3 acres near Jonas Phetteplace. Dated Aug. 25, 1773.

At the time of the Census of 1774 he appears as a resident of Gloucester with a household of 3 males over 16, and one female over 16. In 1777 when the Military Census was taken he was not recorded.

(Note, - Arnold in his Vital Records of Rhode Island has the name Thurber, but an examination of the original entry on page 61, Book 1 of Providence Records shows that the name is Tucker. The Colwell Chart also has the name Tucker.)

To son Stephen he left the eastern part of the farm, and he ordered the rest to be sold to bring up "my children". He mentions also a daughter Huldah Colwell. The will was witnessed by Richard Tucker, Robert Sanders, Jr., and Jonathan Harris.

26 BENJAMIN COLWELL(Robert, Robert, Robert,), b.Feb.10,1745;m. Deborah Brown, b.June 24,1747, dau. of Andrew and Mary(Knowlton)Brown. (Date of birth is also given as 1748).

When the Military Census of Rhode Island was taken in 1777 Benjamin Colwell was recorded as a resident of Glocester, between the ages of 16 and 50. At the time of the 1790 Census he was still a resident of Glocester with a household consisting of one male over 16, 2 under 16, and 9 females.

During the Revolutionary War he served on a Committee to procure arms for Glocester. His nephew Stephen Colwell served as a substitute for him at one time when he was called to serve. In 1788 he was listed as one of those who voted for the State Constitution. About 1794 he moved to New York State, to Herkimer Co. In 1795 he was a resident of German Flats and in 1799 of Frankfurt, as the following deeds show.

Benjamin Colwell first purchased from his father one half of the home farm.

(Glocester Deeds, 9.472) Robert Colwell of Glocester, yeoman, to my son Benjamin Colwell, husbandman, ---1/2 of my farm where I now dwell, and 1/2 of a tract of land east of John Fenner's farm and joins north and east on Eleazar Bowen, south on the highway and 1/2 of what I now jointly own with Samuel Steere on the Chepachet River. Dated Mar.27,1778. On Nov.10,1785 Robert Colwell sold to Benjamin the other half of these possessions. In this deed he describes the location of his house on a piece of land bounded west on Elder Joseph Winsor, and his son Samuel; south on Jeremiah Phillips, east on Zebedee Hopkins, and north on the highway. (11.73).

(Glocester Deeds) Benjamin Colwell and wife Deborah sold land which "Honored father Andrew Brown gave to Deborah---lying on the Chepachet River." Feb.18,1794. Benjamin was then a resident of Glocester.

(13.273) Benjamin Colwell, now of German Flats Town in Herkimer Co., N.Y., yeoman, for £67 sold to Olney Brown, a bog meadow lying on both sides of the Chepachet River, between the saw-mill called Keech's and the bridge called Owen's bridge, held in common with Samuel Steere. Dated Mar.31,1795.

(13.509) Benjamin Colwell and wife Deborah of Frankfurt, Herkimer Co. sold to Samuel Steere, John Esten, Jonathan Harris, of Glocester, and Amey Harris of Scituate, 80 acres, which we have in equal shares with Enos Smith, and wife and Benjamin Smith and wife, given to us by our honored father, Andrew Brown. Dated Jan.25,1799.

(Note, -Enos Smith married Keziah Brown and Benjamin Smith married Lydia Brown, sisters of Deborah. This deed suggests that Jonathan Harris married one of Benjamin's sisters.)

The Revolutionary Records of Rhode Island filed at the State House in Providence show that Benjamin Colwell was a private in the Captain Generals Cavalier Co.---that he enrolled in the expedition to the Island of Rhode Island and served from July 24 to Aug.31,1778 and received pay for eight day's service.

Before me Reuben Hopkins, Elder

Recorded the 1st day of June 1772

by R. Steere Town Clerk

At the time of the Census of 1774 William Colwell was a resident of Scituate with a household consisting of 2 males over 16, one female over 16 and one under 16. In 1777 he was registered in Scituate as between the ages of 16 and 50 and in 1790 the Census shows him as a resident of Foster (which had been set off from Scituate in 1781) with a household consisting of 2 males over 16, 1 under 16, and 9 females. It is probable that his father lived with him, as John is not listed in the 1790 Census.

William Colwell was a Revolutionary Soldier. The records at the State House in Providence report on his card "Head of Class, Continental Service and that his name was on a Return of Recruits at Providence, April 30, 1781. (Note, - He is the William Colwell of Scituate and must not be confused with William Colwell, Jr. of Gloucester.)

On May 4, 1765 William received from his father 94 acres of the farm on the south-west section. In 1773 he purchased from his father 13 acres more adjoining. In 1774 he bought 28 acres more from William Pearce, and 30 more from Nehemiah Arnold adjoining the latter piece, so that his farm, after purchasing from his brother Christopher about 30 acres, was nearly 200 acres in extent. In 1788 he added still another piece which he purchased from Jonathan Brown of Foster, "land which he had from his father James Brown and which bounds easterly on the highway that leads north-west from Hopkins Mills near Joseph Salisbury, William Greene, and Capt. Weatherhead.

In 1807 Lucy Colwell for $1000 sold to her son Arnold Colwell her 1/3 part of the real estate, "my right of dower unto the real estate that my beloved husband, William Colwell, died seized of." The following year Arnold Colwell deeded back to her "60 acres, dwelling house, barn, shop, in Foster bounding on Stephen Winsor, on the south bank of the Ponagansett River, then following the River east 133 rods to Laban Hopkins and Jeremiah Pray's land." Hannah Colwell, wife of Arnold signed this deed, which was witnessed by Asahel Colwell and William Arnold. Lucy then sold to three of her daughters, Anna, Amey, and Asha, all three unmarried, 1/2 of the farm, that is 1/6 to each one. In 1811 two of the daughters Anna and Asha sold to Daniel Cornell, the husband of Amy, "1/3 part of the farm that we purchased of our mother Lucy Walker, wife of Philip Walker, according to the deed that Arnold Colwell gave to Lucy Colwell, the 1/3 part containing 20 acres. Dated Feb. 2, 1811. (Foster Deeds.)

She was the daughter of Daniel Sprague. Daniel died at Richfield, N.Y. His second marriage was recorded in Scituate.

In 1774 Daniel Colwell lived in Scituate with a household of 2 males over 16, 3 under 16, 2 females over 16, and 1 under 16; in 1790 he was a resident of Foster with a family of two males over 16, two under 16 and four females. In 1777 he was recorded as a resident of Scituate between the ages of 16 and 50.

On the 4th of May 1766 Daniel Colwell received as a gift from his father 106 acres, being the northerly part of his farm. In 1793 he sold to Joseph Ford of Smithfield for $1050 "land which I had from my father by deed of gift, the north-east corner of Col. John Colwell's land being a boundary. She was the daughter of Rev. Joseph and Deborah (Matthewson) Winsor. Since Joseph Winsor was the son of Samuel and Mary (Harding) Winsor and this Samuel Winsor was the grandson of Roger Williams, all who trace their descent to Christopher and Martha (Winsor) Colwell are descendants of Roger Williams.

In 1777 Christopher Colwell is recorded as an inhabitant of Scituate and between the ages of 16 and 50. In 1774 his household consisted of 2 males over 16, 2 under 16, and 2 females over 16. In 1790 when that part of Scituate in which he lived had been set off into the town of Foster, his residence is given as Foster and he has a household of 3 males over 16, 7 under 16, and 2 females.

Christopher served as a member of the Scituate Town Council in 1781 and when the town of Foster was set off that same year he became a member of the 4th Co. of Foster.

As soon as Christopher came of age in 1767 he purchased a piece of land of Maturin Ballou and his wife Lydia, near Consider Luther, and later on Aug. 1, 1773 he received from his father as a gift "the farm where I now live, --land bounds north on Daniel Colwell, west on William Colwell. After this he purchased several other pieces of land, which he sold sometimes to members of his own family and often to others. Some of these deeds are of interest. (Scituate, 5.221) On Feb. 17, 1772 Daniel and Martha Hopkins sold to Christopher Colwell the land "where my mill now stands". On April 13, 1774 Christopher sold to James Brown this land and 1/4 part of the saw-mill.

(Foster Deeds) Christopher Colwell of Foster for 1780 Spanish Dollars sold to John Colwell, Jr. of Foster "6 acres, dwelling house and grist-mill, on the south side of the river adjoining Joseph Weatherhead, land of William Greene, to the ditch leading to the mill, ---land of Caleb Greene. In 1785 Isaac Payn, Philip Walker, Levi Round, William Walker, Abraham Walker, Jeremiah Davis, Christopher Colwell and Nehemiah Arnold, all of Foster agree to divide 140 acres which they had purchased of Daniel Fillingham, each to receive 1/7 part except Round and Davis who together have 1/7 part.

These two deeds place the time when Christopher left Rhode Island for New York as between the years 1791 and 1793.

John Colwell was a cooper by trade. In 1774 on Oct. 1st he purchased of Richard Seaver and his wife Hannah, a piece of land on the west side of the Noshassuck River, near the Rev. Mr. Snow's Meeting House (now the Beneficent Church), bounding northeast on Mr. Bassett, south on Mr. Hoyle; south east on John Field, and north on the street; 32 feet fronting on street and 69 feet to John Field's and a dwelling house on it. (Providence Deeds, 20.441).

In the Census of 1774 he is recorded as a resident of Providence, with a family of 1 male over 16, 1 under 16; 1 female over 16 and 1 under 16. In 1777 he is registered in Providence and between the ages of 16 and 50. In 1790 he was living in Smithfield with a family consisting of 1 male over 16, 6 under 16, and 3 females.

John Colwell was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and in 1834 he drew a pension. When applying for a pension he told of his service as follows.

Statement taken July 20, 1832 before Ira P. Evans, Judge of Smithfield. "I was born in Gloucester, June 23, 1746, but was living in Providence when first called to service and since then have lived in Gloucester and then in Smithfield. I was first called on the alarm in the fall of 1776, --under Capt. Joseph Snow--to Warwick for one month. Then I moved to Gloucester in Dec. 1776 after the British took possession of Newport. I was drafted under Capt. Elijah Armstrong to the R.I. Militia and was sent to guard the shores for one month. I was in the same company for one month in 1777 and the last part of July 1778 was drafted to Capt. Samuel May's Co., Col. Chad Brown. I was on the Gen. Sullivan Expedition to N.L. and was stationed at Whortleberry Point--left there the day before the battle. Again drafted to Capt. May's Co. and stationed at Providence and Warwick. I was drafted in 1779-80-31-82-83 and stationed in Providence and along the shores. I served in the Militia over two years between 1776 and 1783."

The farm which John Colwell bought in Gloucester was on the Log Road (above the upper Mowry place). He purchased it from Gardiner Aldrich. In 1793 John moved to Smithfield and sold this place--3 acres back to Gardiner Aldrich. It was adjacent to Charles Colwell. John's wife Elizabeth signed the deed.

In 1796 he again bought land in Gloucester--16 acres near John Pain and Joseph Inman. In 1810 he sold to two of his sons, John and Olney, the northern part of the land. He was then a resident of Smithfield. His farm was partly in that town, as was the part which his two sons, William and David owned.

It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be carefully documented to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes recording dates, amounts, and the nature of the transactions. The second part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the company's revenue for the quarter. He was greatly interested in the history of the family and was the compiler of the Colwell Chart. This chart is framed in a large gilt frame and is in the possession of Mr. Winfield Colwell of Danielson, Conn. At the very top and centered are the words
 A Genealogical Table of the posterity of

who came from England to America about the year
 1653 and settled at Providence in the Colony of Rhode Island

Robert Colwell

his only son was born at Providence 1661 married

Amey Downing died in June 1748 aged 87 years.

The next line names the ten children of Robert and Amey. The lines are separated by tiny painted vines, and each person's name is written in a little box-like rectangle, together with the facts concerning that person.

The next line has four of these boxes with the names of the four children of John; namely John, William, Daniel and Christopher. Then each of the next four lines carry on the children of these four, and so on for two generations.

The final line was added later. In the upper right hand corner of the chart there is written the following item.

"A Copy of Robert Colwell's first deed of land.

"The 28th of April 1654----John Fenner sould unto Robert Colwell the House Lots wch was formerly Richard Prays lying between Edward Inmans and John Smiths."

"The above is an extract from the Records of the town of Providence from the Book called ---small Brass Clasps on the 9th leaf on the side top burnt---copied by me, from yours sincere Theodore Foster

N.B. The small Brass Clasps was one of the Books of Record of Providence thrown by the Indians into the Mill Pond when they took the Town of Providence in 1675 afterwards found there."

This chart must have been treasured for it is in fine condition and perfectly legible. The colors in the vines are somewhat faded, but that only adds to the quaint appearance of the whole.

108 ARNOLD COLWELL(William, John, Robert, Robert), b. Oct. 7, 1776; d. 1850; m. 1798 Hannah Wilmarth, b. Jan. 25, 1780, at Chepachet, in Gloucester, dau. of Hon. Timothy Wilmarth and his wife Thankful Steere. They were divorced and he married (2) Oct. 16, 1823, Letsey O. Brown, daughter of Stephen Hopkins. Hannah married (2) Hon. Samuel Winsor of Gloucester on June 23, 1825. Hannah Winsor died July 19, 1869, in Scituate, R.I. and she is buried in the Cemetery in that town.

After his father's death Arnold's mother deeded to him her share in her husband's estate, but later he deeded back to her 60 acres of the farm and she gave most of this to her daughters. In 1805 on Mar. 13, Arnold sold to Samuel Williams 10 acres which he owned on the south side of the Ponagansett River, (Foster Deeds, Bk. IV, p. 32) and on April 19, 1810 he sold Job Steere of Scituate, 181 acres "where I now live". Hannah signed both deeds. On Oct. 30 of this same year Arnold bought a farm in Brooklyn, Conn. It was on the road leading from Danielson to Brooklyn and situated nearly opposite to the road leading to the old Episcopal Church. The farm contained about 100 acres.

While Arnold lived here John, Abigail, and Timothy were born. Arnold was one of those men possessed with the spirit of "Wanderlust". After his third disappearance and his third return, Hannah refused to receive him back and demanded a divorce, which she obtained. She then went with her family of children to her father's home in Chepachet, where she lived until her second marriage to Judge Winsor.

Her brother Joseph sold to her in 1819 "what I purchased of Arnold Colwell in the real and personal estate of my honored father, Timothy Wilmarth, late of Gloucester." After her marriage to Judge Winsor she lived on the road called Chopmist Hill Road which leads from the Danielson Pike to Chepachet. The house was in Gloucester just over the Scituate line. An old cellar hole marks the spot. The view over the valley is superb.

Mr. Irving Colwell states that his grandfather was Asa Colwell, who was a son of Robert Colwell and that Asa had a brother Taft and a brother Smith Colwell. Since Charles Colwell married Anna Taft it seems probable that they are the grandparents of Asa, Taft, and Smith, and so the parents of the Robert who married Lydia Sheldon. This is only circumstantial evidence. The line must be proved. Such proof is not at hand at this date. (March 1936)

He mentions also his two sons Aram and Esek.

Esek was a cordwainer or shoemaker. "I, Esek Colwell of Smithfield, cordwainer, sell to James Parker of Foster----- Lydia Colwell, wife, signed the deed. On April 11, 1810 Simeon Ballou and his wife Rhoena sold to Patience Aldrich land in Smithfield, part of the land that Samuel Aldrich gave to David Aldrich. The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted on the 15th and 16th of May 1881. The first column gives the number of the experiment, the second column the time taken for the reaction to take place, the third column the amount of gas evolved, and the fourth column the weight of the substance used.

Exp. No.	Time (sec.)	Gas (cc.)	Weight (gms.)
1	12.5	10.0	0.5
2	15.0	12.0	0.5
3	18.0	15.0	0.5

The results of the experiments show that the rate of reaction increases with the weight of the substance used. The time taken for the reaction to take place decreases as the weight of the substance increases. The amount of gas evolved also increases with the weight of the substance used.

Add to the children of Charles Colwell (No.47) another son, Charles, as well as the Robert which was suggested (No.137)

Charles Colwell, Jr. was born about 1761 and died in New York State, on Feb.9, 1822, and is buried in the same Cemetery as are Robert Colwell and his wife Lydia Sheldon. The stones give the date of death of Robert as Feb.12, 1854 and of Lydia as Nov.28, 1864. In this same yard are buried Henry F. Colwell, son of Taft and Edith Colwell, who died May 2, 1831 at the age of one year, also Elmira Colwell who died Feb.20, 1820.

In the Quaker Burial Place at Sherburne, N.Y. lie Asa Colwell, who died Apr.27, 1865, aged 71 years and 11 days and Susannah, his wife, who died July 9, 1889 aged 87 years.

These records should be added to 137, 320, and 322.

One deed given in the records for the town of Plymouth, N.Y. on Aug. 17, 1829, represents Robert Colwell and his wife Lydia and Smith Colwell as grantors, and Asa Colwell witnessed the deed. Another deed granted Aug.17, 1829 represent Robert and Lydia Colwell and Nathan Colwell, with a Silas Colwell as witness.

These facts prove that the Robert Colwell who married Lydia Sheldon was the father of the four boys (320, 321, 322, 323) Asa, Nathan, Taft, and Smith as was suggested. From other records it is evident that Robert and Charles were children of Charles and Anna (Taft) Colwell, as was also suggested.
